In your paper of the 17th Inst., I was surprised to find this statement: "No treatment is known which will arrest or modify the disease." I challenge all the M. D.'s of this city to produce a case of man, woman. or child, that I cannot cure.

Edwin M. Jett, policeman, Brightwood. D. C., sent home from the George Washington University Hospital, as an incurable for life, helpless, no use of hands or feet. After the fifth treatment, by assistance, he walked down to the buggy. After the ninth treatment he walked up the stairs without any help, and is now walking the streets.
